Dispute Resolution Worldwide

THEODORE K. CHENG, ESQ.

New York ♦ New Jersey ♦ Pennsylvania ♦ Connecticut

Theodore K. Cheng is a partner in the law firm of Fox Horan & Camerini LLP, practicing in general commercial litigation, counseling, and alternative dispute resolution (ADR), with a focus on copyrights, trademarks, patents, trade secrets, and other intellectual property matters. With over 15 years of experience handling a broad array of business disputes in federal and state courts, he counsels high net-worth individuals and business entities in industries as varied as high-tech, telecommunications, entertainment, consumer products, food and hospitality, retail, and financial services. In 2007, he was named one of the Best Lawyers Under 40 by the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association.

Mr. Cheng typically formulates and advises clients and their in-house counsel on litigation and dispute resolution strategy, often striving to suggest innovative and creative ways to resolve conflicts. In addition to achieving favorable outcomes through motion practice and trials, he has successfully resolved numerous matters through facilitated negotiations, mediations, and arbitrations, including wage-and-hour disputes, breach of contract and negligence actions, trade secret theft, employment discrimination claims, and intellectual property infringement. Under an appointment by the New York City Civil Court, Mr. Cheng has conducted over 140 arbitrations, mediations, settlement discussions, and inquests, handling cases that have spanned employment disputes, contract breaches, bailment issues, failure to pay for services, and return of security deposits. He also serves on the Southern District of New York federal court Mediation Panel, assisting to resolve a wide variety of matters, including commercial disputes, employment discrimination cases, and intellectual property challenges. Mr. Cheng also received a 2013 American Arbitration Association A. Leon Higginbotham, Jr. Fellowship. He regularly speaks and publishes on intellectual property and ADR issues.

Mr. Cheng was previously a senior litigator at several prominent national law firms and was also a marketing consultant in the brokerage operations of a major insurance company. He served as a law clerk to the Honorable Julio M. Fuentes of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and the Honorable Ronald L. Buckwalter of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.
