JOSEPH L. STONE, ESQ.
Chicago, Illinois

Joe Stone is a member of Resolute Systems' Distinguished Panel of Neutrals and of counsel to Seyfarth Shaw. Mr. Stone's mediation practice consists primarily of commercial, employment, commercial transaction and financial matters.

Mr. Stone has substantial experience mediating employment disputes, including those involving age, race, gender and sexual orientation discrimination, disabilities and equal pay. Mr. Stone is also a mediator in the U.S. Postal Service's "Redress" program. In addition to mediating commercial, contract, employment and financial matters, Mr. Stone has mediated many personal injury cases.

Mr. Stone has completed several mediation training courses, including Resolution Resources two-day training course, the U.S. Postal Service mediator training course and the EEOC's mediation program training course.

Mr. Stone is Past President of the Chicago Bar Association. He has practiced law in Chicago for over 40 years concentrating in Ad Valorem taxation, representing real estate interests before the Assessor and Boards of Review in counties throughout Illinois, commercial transactions, EEO matters, corporate and banking. Mr. Stone is the founding director of the Loyola University Law School Business Law Center and formerly an adjunct professor at the law school where he taught a seminar in commercial transactions.

Mr. Stone received his Bachelor of Science from the University of Wisconsin and his JD from Northwestern University Law School.

Mr. Stone is available to mediate in Chicago and throughout the United States. To schedule, please contact Mike Weinzierl at mweinzierl@resolutesystems.com or 312.346.3770.
