Professional Experience

Dennis Berg is partner in the Chicago law firm of Pipal & Berg, LLP. He has been a trial attorney for the past 20 years, and has had the unique experience of representing both plaintiffs and defendants at trial. He has forged solid relationships with both plaintiff and defense counsel in Cook and DuPage County. His reputation and experience as a litigator instill confidence in his mediation clients. Understanding the perspectives of plaintiffs and defendants, as well as being in the shoes of their attorneys makes Mr. Berg a highly effective mediator.

Mr. Berg combines the evaluative and facilitative mediation models. In the evaluative mode, he is especially known for helping his clients move into value ranges that ultimately result in settlement. Resolute Systems administers Mr. Berg's ADR practice.

Mediation Concentration

- Substantial Personal Injury
- Medical Malpractice
- Wrongful Death
- Commercial
- Construction Law

Mr. Berg began working with his current law partner Faustin Pipal in 1989 where they litigated cases on behalf of both plaintiffs and defendants in products liability, personal injury and commercial disputes. They eventually formed Pipal & Berg, LLP in 2004. The firm now concentrates its practice on ADR and litigation. While over 80% of the firm's time is devoted to ADR, Mr. Berg actively litigates cases, and believes his ongoing litigation experience makes him a more effective mediator.
